

FACELESS

COLLECTION BY COCO DÁVEZ

Coco Dávez

Born in Madrid in 1989, Coco is an polifacetic artist who develops her work as a painter, designer and photographer.

At the age 21 she moved to London to study photography but in that way she returns to painting, in that moment Dávez start to work for the editorial world like an illustrator and photographer.

Step by step she begins to make a hole in the universe of international brands, since that moment she has worked with labels like Primark, Sisley, Absolut Vodka, Jameson Whisky, Master's Gin, Bimba & Lola, El Ganso, Pikolinos, Tanqueray, Purificación García, Armani or Ron Barceló, among other.

Like a painter she has exhibited in cities as Paris, Belgium, Lisbon, Madrid, Santiago de Chile or Barcelona.

Having a great relationship with the press she has been seen in Vogue, Glamour, Apartment Therapy, Telva, El País or S Moda.

While she doesn't stop researching in new fields such a window dressing, fashion or writing, the next year Coco will release her own illustrated book from Planeta editorial.

FACELESS

Faceless is the name of her most known art collection.
Portrait serie of her idols with a pop touch, minimal and very colorful.

SIZES & PRICES

Acrylic on french paper 100% cotton 300 grs

36 x 26 cms 250€ + VAT

Acrylic on canvas

65 x 54 cms 450€ + VAT

100 x 81cms 900€ + VAT

116 x 89 cms 1170€ + VAT

130 x 97 cms 1250€ + VAT

162 x 130 cms 1550 + VAT

30% Extra charge over selling price in custom orders.

An abstract background composed of large, overlapping, textured shapes in bright colors: a large yellow shape on the left, a blue shape in the upper right, a red shape at the bottom left, and an orange shape on the far right. The shapes have a slightly rough, paper-like texture.

THANK YOU!